Elections required

Following the decision to establish Māori constituencies in 2021, the Taranaki Regional Council undertook a representation review (number of constituencies, boundaries, number of elected members etc). The final proposal, as confirmed by the Local Government Commission, and as outlined below, is considered to best reflect the region's communities of interest.

Taranaki Regional Council is divided into four general constituencies and one region-wide Māori constituency, these being:

Constituency	Members	Resident electors
New Plymouth General	5	41,648
North Taranaki General	2	15,793
Stratford General	1	16,722
South Taranaki General	2	6,500
Taranaki Māori	1	7,232
	11	87,895

Number of electors as at 2 May 2022

Elections will also be held at the same time for elected members of the New Plymouth District Council, South Taranaki District Council and Stratford District Council. No District Health Board elections will be held in 2022.

Whārangā meka - Fact Sheet

Triennial Election

Taranaki Regional Council
8 October 2022

What does Council do?

The role and responsibilities of the Regional Council involve managing the region's natural resources - it manages land, air, coast and the quality of water in our lakes and rivers. They are also responsible for biodiversity, certain recreation and cultural activities, flood protection, emergency management and regional transport. The Regional Council works closely with district councils and other agencies on many issues, to ensure they are managed to benefit the entire region.

Background

Local government triennial elections are being held by postal vote on Saturday 8 October 2022 and will be undertaken by Election Services, under contract to the Taranaki Regional Council.

The elections are undertaken on behalf of the regional council by its three constituent territorial authorities (New Plymouth District Council, South Taranaki District Council and Stratford District Council).

In addition to their own elections (Mayor, Council etc), each constituent territorial authority is also undertaking the regional council election.

The first past the post (FPP) electoral system will be used for the Taranaki Regional Council elections.

2022 Key Dates

Nominations open	Friday 15 July
Nominations close	Noon, Friday 12 August
Delivery of voting packs	from Friday 16 September
Close of voting	Noon, Saturday 8 October
Official results announced	Thursday 13 October

Who is being elected?

Following the decision to establish a Māori constituency in 2021, Taranaki Regional Council undertook a representation arrangements review (review of constituencies, boundaries, number of elected members etc).

Elections will be required for the following positions:

- Councillors (11)
 - New Plymouth General Constituency (5)
 - North Taranaki General Constituency (2)
 - Stratford General Constituency (1)
 - South Taranaki General Constituency (2)
 - Taranaki Māori Constituency (1)

How can I be nominated?

Nominations for these positions will open on Friday 15 July 2022 and close at noon on Friday 12 August 2022.

Nomination papers will be available during this period at:

- New Plymouth District Council's Civic Centre, 84 Liardet Street, New Plymouth;
- South Taranaki District Council's Administration Building, 105-111 Albion Street, Hāwera;
- Stratford District Council's Administration Building, 63 Miranda Street, Stratford;
- by accessing www.trc.govt.nz;
- by telephoning the electoral office on 0800 922 822.

To be eligible to stand for election, a candidate must be:

- a New Zealand citizen (by birth or naturalisation ceremony); and
- enrolled as a Parliamentary elector (anywhere in New Zealand) on either the general or Māori electoral roll, irrespective of the constituency being nominated for; and
- nominated by two electors whose names appear on the respective electoral roll within the constituency that a candidate is standing for.

Who can vote?

Those eligible to vote are all resident electors and non-resident ratepayer electors whose names appear on the electoral roll when it closes on Friday 12 August 2022. The Preliminary Electoral Roll will be available for public inspection from Friday 15 July 2022 to Friday 12 August 2022 at the above locations.

Resident Roll: All parliamentary electors, including those on the Māori Electoral Roll, are automatically enrolled on the Resident Roll, at the address where they live.

Any alterations to the Resident Roll (e.g. change of address details, including new postal addresses) should be made by:

- completing the appropriate form at any postal agency;
- phoning 0800 ENROLNOW (0800 36 76 56); or
- accessing the Electoral Commission website on: www.vote.nz

Ratepayer Roll: If a person is on the parliamentary roll in one area and pays rates on a property in another area, this person may be eligible to be enrolled on the non-resident ratepayer roll. A firm, company, corporation or society paying rates on a property may nominate one of its members or officers as a ratepayer elector (provided the nominated person resides outside the area). Ratepayer Roll enrolment forms are available from respective territorial authority websites, or by phoning 0800 922 822.

Those electors on the general electoral roll will be able to vote for the respective general constituency candidates, and those on the Māori electoral roll will be able to vote for the Māori constituency candidates.

How to vote?

Voting packs will be sent out in the mail to all those who have enrolled from Friday 16 September 2022.

The voting period is three weeks (Friday 16 September 2022 to noon Saturday 8 October 2022). Electors may post their completed voting documents back to the electoral officer using the orange pre-paid envelope sent with their voting document.

Polling places for the issuing of special voting documents and for the receiving of completed voting documents will be available from Friday 16 September 2022 to noon, Saturday 8 October 2022 at:

- New Plymouth District Council's Civic Centre, 84 Liardet Street, New Plymouth;

- South Taranaki District Council's Administration Building, 105-111 Albion Street, Hāwera;
- Stratford District Council's Administration Building, 63 Miranda Street, Stratford.

To be counted, all completed voting documents must be in the hands of the electoral officer or an electoral official by noon Saturday 8 October 2022.

Progress results will be announced early afternoon of election day. Preliminary results will be announced early on Sunday morning, 9 October 2022, and final results will be known on Thursday 13 October 2022. All results will be accessible on Council's website: www.trc.govt.nz

Mātāpono pōti - Electoral principles

Key message

The electoral principles contained in section 4 of the Local Electoral Act 2001 are outlined below for candidate information. These principles must be taken into account in the conduct of any election or poll.

Principles

- (1) The principles that this Act is designed to implement are the following:
 - a. fair and effective representation for individuals and communities
 - aa. representative and substantial electoral participation in local elections and polls
 - b. all qualified persons have a reasonable and equal opportunity to:
 - i. cast an informed vote;
 - ii. nominate 1 or more candidates;
 - iii. accept nomination as a candidate.
 - c. public confidence in, and public understanding of, local electoral processes through:
 - i. the provision of a regular election cycle;
 - ii. the provision of elections that are managed independently from the elected body;
 - iii. protection of the freedom of choice of voters and the secrecy of the vote;
 - iv. the provision of transparent electoral systems and voting methods and the adoption of procedures that produce certainty in electoral outcomes;
 - v. the provision of impartial mechanisms for resolving disputed elections and polls.
- (2) Local authorities, electoral officers, and other electoral officials must, in making decisions under this Act or any other enactment, take into account those principles specified in subsection (1) that are applicable (if any), so far as is practicable in the circumstances.
- (3) This section does not override any other provision in this Act or any other enactment.

Whakatureture pōti - Electoral legislation

Key message

All local government elections are required to be conducted strictly following legislation.

Legislation to be followed

- Local Electoral Act 2001
- Local Electoral Regulations 2001
- Local Government Act 2002
- Local Authorities (Members' Interests) Act 1968

Full copies of the above legislation are available online at www.legislation.govt.nz

Pūnaha pōti - Electoral systems

Key message

Two electoral systems will be operating side by side for the 2022 elections, these being:

- First Past the Post (FPP)
- Single Transferable Voting (STV)

Organisations using the FPP electoral system are:

- Taranaki Regional Council
- South Taranaki District Council
- Stratford District Council

Organisations using the STV electoral system are:

- New Plymouth District Council

Understanding FPP

When you vote in an FPP election, you tick the name of the candidate(s) you most prefer, up to the number of vacancies.

When the votes are counted, the candidate(s) with the most votes is/are elected.

For example, if there is one vacancy, you can vote for one candidate. If there are three vacancies, you can vote for up to three candidates.

Understanding STV

For information on understanding how the STV electoral system works, refer to the Department of Internal Affairs website (www.stv.govt.nz)

A comprehensive explanation on the New Zealand method of counting STV votes is found in Schedule 1A, Local Electoral Regulations 2001.

Briefly, the STV electoral system consists of the following:

- voters receive a single (transferable) vote no matter whether there is one vacancy or several;
- voters rank the candidates in order of preference. "1" next to the name of the candidate most preferred, "2" next to the name of the candidate next preferred and so on;
- when votes are counted, all the first preferences are allocated first. To be elected, a candidate must reach a "quota" of votes, which is based on the number of vacancies and the number of valid votes;
- a candidate who reaches the quota is elected. If there is more than one vacancy and a candidate gets more votes than the quota, a proportion of each vote for that candidate is transferred to the voter's second preference. If, as a result, another candidate gets more votes than the quota, a proportion is transferred to third preferences, and so on;
- if insufficient candidates reach the quota after the first preferences are allocated and after any surplus votes are transferred, then the candidate who received the fewest votes is eliminated and each vote for that candidate is transferred to the voter's second preference. This process is repeated until enough candidates reach the quota to fill all the vacancies.

Māraurau mō te kaitono pōti - Candidate eligibility

Key message

A candidate for the Taranaki Regional Council must be:

- a New Zealand citizen; and
- a parliamentary elector (anywhere in New Zealand) [Section 25, Local Electoral Act 2001]; and
- nominated by two electors whose names appear on the electoral roll for the constituency the candidate is standing for.

Candidate restrictions

Restrictions on a candidate for the Taranaki Regional Council are:

- a candidate may seek nomination for the Taranaki Regional Council but cannot also seek nomination for any of the constituent councils (e.g. New Plymouth District Council, South Taranaki District Council and Stratford District Council). [Section 58 Local Electoral Act 2001].

- a candidate may seek nomination for one constituency only (not multiple constituencies).
- a candidate (or candidate's spouse) for councillor cannot be a person concerned or interested in contracts over $25,000 with the Taranaki Regional Council [Section 3(1) Local Authorities (Member's Interests) Act 1968]. This restriction may be waived, and it is recommended that advice from the Office of the Auditor-General is sought.
- an employee of the Taranaki Regional Council who is elected as councillor must resign from their position as an employee of the Taranaki Regional Council before taking up their position. An employee will need to alert their manager of the intention to stand for office prior to any nomination being lodged. [Section 41(5) Local Government Act 2002].

Whakaaringa - Nominations

Key message

Nominations open on Friday 15 July 2022 and close at 12 noon, Friday 12 August 2022.

Availability of nomination papers

An abridged public notice calling for nominations will appear in the Taranaki Daily News on Wednesday 13 July 2022 and the Taranaki Star on Thursday 14 July 2022. A full public notice calling for nominations will be placed on Council's website on Wednesday 13 July 2022.

Each nomination must be made on the appropriate official nomination paper. A separate nomination paper is required for each issue or position and these are available from 15 July 2022 from:

- New Plymouth District Council's Civic Centre, 84 Liardet Street, New Plymouth;
- South Taranaki District Council's Administration Building, 105-111 Albion Street, Hāwera;
- Stratford District Council's Administration Building, 63 Miranda Street, Stratford.
- by accessing www.trc.govt.nz
- by telephoning the electoral office on 0800 922 822.

Nomination papers for the Taranaki Regional Council are available from 15 July 2022 from the respective district council offices.

Candidate profile statement

Every candidate may provide the electoral officer with a candidate profile statement with their nomination. This statement must not exceed 150 words and can contain information about the candidate, their qualifications and skills applicable to the position for which they are standing and their policies/intentions if elected to office.

The candidate profile statement must be true and accurate and the electoral officer is not required to verify or investigate any information included in this statement.

The profile may include a recent passport-sized colour photograph.

The candidate profile statement and colour photo are required to be submitted in hardcopy, not electronically (except where information in another language is provided).

Candidate profile statements will be printed in plain text, without formatting ie:

- no bullet points;
- no bold or underlining;
- no italics;
- no quote marks.

These will be included with the voting document sent to each elector by the electoral officer, as well as being placed on the council's website.

Note that any spelling or grammatical errors will not be corrected, and candidates are therefore reminded to check their candidate profile statement prior to submitting their nomination.

The candidate profile statement may be submitted in both English and Māori (maximum 150 words in either language) but the information contained in each language must be substantially consistent with the information contained in the other.

Should all or part of a candidate profile statement be provided in a language other than English or Māori, it must not exceed 150 words in total. Any language other than English or Māori is required to be provided in an electronic graphic file. As an example, a candidate could submit a candidate profile statement consisting of say 50 words in English, 50 words in Samoan and 50 words in Tongan. The total number of words cannot exceed 150.

If submitting an electronic graphic file containing other languages, the specifications (from the printer) are: all translations must be supplied as a single image, and if there is more than one language translated, then these are to be all supplied together in a single image.

The image file to be supplied must meet the following criteria:

- PNG format;
- black and white;
- 600 dpi;
- maximum file size 400kB;
- the image being 1300 pixels high and 2000 pixels wide.

The following contact details are given for a translation company, for those candidates who are unable to prepare the translation image themselves or do not know of anyone to do this for them:

Pacific International Translations (NZ) Ltd
Level 26, HSBC Tower, 188 Quay Street, Auckland 1010.
Phone: 0508 872675
Email: info@pactranz.com
Web: www.pactranz.com

Candidates are also required to submit with their candidate profile statement the following information:

- i. whether or not the candidate's principal place of residence (where the candidate is registered as a parliamentary elector) is/is not in the area (e.g. constituency) the candidate is seeking election for [Section 61(2)(ca) Local Electoral Act 2001]; and
- ii. each position the candidate is seeking election for. [Section 61(2)(cb) Local Electoral Act 2001]

Section 61 of the Local Electoral Act 2001 states the following:

- (1) Every candidate may, provide to the electoral officer a candidate profile statement that complies with subsection (2) and, if applicable, subsection (3).
- (2) A candidate profile statement -

- a. if -
 - i. in English or Māori or both, must not exceed 150 words in each of the languages used in the statement;
 - ii. in a language other than English or Māori, must not exceed 150 words, or the equivalent, if the language uses symbols rather than words (including any translation of those words into another language provided by the candidate); and
- b. must be provided to the electoral officer together with the nomination paper and other things referred to in section 55(2)(f); and
- c. must be confined to information concerning the candidate (including any group or organisation with which the candidate claims under section 55(4) to be affiliated, or their status as an independent candidate, and the candidate's contact details), and the candidate's policies and intentions if elected to office; and
- ca. must state whether or not the candidate's principal place of residence, being the address in respect of which the candidate is registered as a parliamentary elector, is in the local government area for which the candidate seeks election (for example, either "My principal place of residence is in the Lambton Ward" or "My principal place of residence is not in the Lambton Ward"); and
- cb. if the candidate is seeking election to any other positions in elections to which this Act applies (under section 7), must specify each position and state that the candidate is seeking to be elected to the positions; and
- d. must comply with any prescribed requirements; and
- e. may include a recent photograph of the candidate alone.

- (2A) The information required by subsection (2)(ca) and (cb) does not count for the purposes of the word limit under subsection (2)(a).
- (3) If a candidate profile statement is submitted in Māori and English, the information contained in each language must be substantially consistent with the information contained in the other language.
- (4) If the electoral officer is not satisfied that a candidate profile statement complies with subsection (2) or, if applicable, subsection (3), the electoral officer must, as soon as practicable, return the statement to the candidate and must—
 - a. specify the concerns of the electoral officer and the reasons for those concerns; and
 - b. unless the candidate profile statement does not comply with subsection (2)(b), specify a period, which must not be less than 3 days from the date of return of the statement, during which the candidate may submit an amended candidate profile statement to the electoral officer.

- (5) A candidate is to be treated as having failed to provide a candidate profile statement, if subsection (4)(b) applies to the candidate and the candidate—
- fails to submit an amended candidate profile statement within the period specified in subsection (4)(b); or
 - submits an amended candidate profile statement that, in the opinion of the electoral officer, does not comply with subsection (2) or, if applicable, subsection (3).
- (6) An electoral officer -
- is not required to verify or investigate any information included in a candidate profile statement;
 - may include, in or with any candidate profile statement that is published, displayed, or distributed, any disclaimer concerning the accuracy of the information contained in the statement that the electoral officer considers appropriate;
 - is not liable in respect of -
 - any statement contained in or omitted from the candidate profile statement or the work of a translator prudently selected by the electoral officer; or
 - the exercise of the powers and functions conferred on the electoral officer by this section.

Once lodged, a nomination paper is available for public inspection at the electoral office. Candidate details not identified as confidential (e.g. mobile phone number) are made available to the media, placed on websites etc.

Affiliation

The nomination paper provides for a candidate to have an affiliation. An affiliation is described in section 57(3) of the Local Electoral Act 2001 as 'an endorsement by any organisation or group (whether incorporated or unincorporated).'

Individual candidates, not part of an organisation or group, may wish to nominate their affiliation as 'Independent' or leave as blank (if left blank, nothing will show alongside the name on the voting document).

A candidate claiming a specific affiliation must supply with their nomination paper an authority to adopt the affiliation for the organisation or group concerned (i.e. letter of consent to use the affiliation from the organisation or group). This is a safety measure to avoid any illegal adoption of affiliations. Affiliations that will not be accepted are ones:

- that might cause offence; or
- are likely to confuse or mislead electors; or
- are election slogans rather than the name of an organisation or group.

Should an affiliation be rejected for any of the above reasons, section 57(3) of the Local Electoral Act 2001 sets out a process for the electoral officer and candidate to follow. Should agreement not be reached, no affiliation will appear on voting documents.

Affiliations are not able to be 'pre-registered' with the electoral officer, before a nomination is lodged.

Completion of nomination paper

Each nomination paper must have the consent of the candidate and be nominated by two electors whose names appear on the electoral roll for the district or subdivision of the district (e.g. if a person wishes to stand for election to a specific constituency, then that person must be nominated by two electors from the specific constituency).

If a candidate is unable to sign the nomination paper (e.g. absent overseas), a letter of consent signed by the candidate is acceptable to attach to the nomination paper.

If a candidate is commonly known in the community by a slightly different name (e.g. Edward Smith is commonly known as Ted Smith) and has been known by this name for at least the last six months (to the satisfaction of the electoral officer), the commonly known name may appear on the voting document.

Return of nomination paper

Completed nomination papers can be lodged at:

- New Plymouth District Council's Civic Centre, 84 Liardet Street, New Plymouth;
- South Taranaki District Council's Administration Building, 105-111 Albion Street, Hāwera;
- Stratford District Council's Administration Building, 63 Miranda Street, Stratford

or posted to:

The Electoral Officer
Taranaki Regional Council
C/- Independent Election Services Ltd
PO Box 5135
Victoria Street West
Auckland 1142

in time to be received no later than noon, Friday 12 August 2022.

All nomination material:

- nomination paper;
- candidate profile statement [if provided];
- candidate photo;
- $200 nomination deposit;
- evidence of NZ citizenship;
- letter endorsing affiliation [if applicable];

is required to be lodged together [Section 55(2)(f) Local Electoral Act 2001].

A receipt will be issued to acknowledge that a nomination has been received. This receipt does not constitute an acknowledgment that the nomination paper is in order.

Once lodged, nomination papers are checked to ensure the candidate's name appears on the Parliamentary Roll and the nominators are two electors whose names appear on the electoral roll for the district or subdivision of the district (e.g. constituency).

Each nomination paper lodged requires a deposit of $200 (inclusive of GST). This is refunded if the candidate polls greater than 25% of the lowest successful candidate (for FPP elections) or greater than 25% of the final quota as determined at the last iteration (for STV elections).

Payment of the nomination deposit can be made by electronic bank transfer, eftpos or cash. Evidence of an electronic bank transfer will be required to accompany the nomination.

Electronic bank payment details are:

Account name: Independent Election Services Ltd
Bank: ANZ
Account number: 01 0102 0437238 00
Particulars: your initials and surname
Code: TRC
Reference: Nomination

Cheques are no longer accepted.

The lodgement of nomination papers should not be left to the last minute. Should a nomination paper be lodged late on the morning nominations close, and be incorrectly completed or ineligible nominators are provided, there may be insufficient time to correct the situation and the nomination paper could be invalidated.

Please do not leave lodging your nomination to the last minute.

Nominations can be returned by mail, but should these be received by the electoral officer or electoral official after the close of nominations, the nomination is invalid.

Cancellation of nomination

A candidate is able to withdraw their nomination up until the close of nominations (noon, Friday 12 August 2022). After the close of nominations, a candidate is not able to withdraw their nomination. [Section 69, Local Electoral Act 2001].

However, should a candidate become incapacitated after the close of nominations but before the close of voting, application may be made for the cancellation of the nomination of a candidate.

'Incapacitated' means that a candidate, because they are suffering from a serious illness or has sustained a serious injury, would be unlikely to be capable of performing the functions and duties of office if elected to office. [Section 69(7) Local Electoral Act 2001].

An application for the cancellation of the nomination of a candidate must be made to the electoral officer by submitting a prescribed form (available from the electoral office) together with a medical certificate.

Hui pārongo i te Kaitono Pōti - Candidate information briefings

Key message

People interested in standing for election are invited to attend a candidate information briefing to hear about the electoral process (the do's and don'ts), responsibilities and expectations if elected etc.

Briefing dates

People interested in standing for election to the Taranaki Regional Council are invited to attend a candidate information meeting as follows:

Saturday 16 July 2022, 9:00am - 11:00am,
South Taranaki District Council
Administration Building,
105-111 Albion Street, Hāwera

Saturday 16 July 2022, 12:00 - 2:00pm,
Council Chambers, Stratford District Council,
63 Miranda Street, Stratford

Saturday 16 July 2022, 3:00pm - 5:00pm,
New Plymouth District Council, Council Chamber,
Civic Centre, 84 Liardet Street, New Plymouth

The candidate information briefings are held to provide an opportunity for those members of the public who are considering standing for office to find out:

- how the organisation is structured
- the skills required, the role and responsibilities of elected representatives
- matters pertaining to the elections (eligibility, nominations, timetable, induction process and remuneration).

Registration to attend is not required.

Key message

Election campaigning can commence anytime and may continue up to and including election day. However there are certain constraints candidates need to be aware of.

The locations and periods of display of election signs depend on the territorial authority area you are campaigning in.

All signs must be erected in a stable fashion, not being a hazard to public or traffic safety. Council policies on election signs are detailed on page 28 of this handbook.

Campaigning

Election material cannot contain:

- any untrue statement defamatory of any candidate (e.g. under the Defamation Act 1992);
- an imitation voting document which has the names of the candidates with any direction or indication as to the candidate a person should vote for, or in any way contains such direction or indication likely to influence the voter.

Voting documents should not be collected from electors by candidates or their assistants. Each elector should post or deliver their own voting document to the electoral officer. This also applies to rest homes and hospitals - voting documents should not be collected from elderly or infirm electors by candidates or their assistants.

Use of council resources

Candidates are not permitted to use council resources for campaigning purposes. Council resources include, but are not limited to, the council's logo, crest or branding, website, Facebook page, Twitter account, any other forms of social media, tablets, computers, ipads, email, mobile phones, faxes, stationery, photocopiers, printers, stamps, cars, meeting rooms and venues (except those available for public hire). This applies to either sitting members, council staff or other candidates in any context that could reasonably be construed as campaigning for elections.

Social media

Social media can be a useful tool for candidates for campaigning purposes and electioneering. Candidates should however be aware of any council social media guidelines for candidates and should comply with these at all times.

Candidates should be aware that election advertising, using any media, including on social media, must identify the true name of the person under whose authority they have been produced and the physical address (not a PO Box) of the person under whose authority they have been produced [Section 113, Local Electoral Act 2001]. This may be details of the candidate or their agent, and may be included on a profile picture, or within the bio section of a page.

For example: 'All content/images contained on this social media page/advertisement are authorised by [name], [physical address]'.

Offences

Candidates should be aware that it is an offence (carrying a fine of up to $5,000, if convicted) to interfere in any way with an elector with the intention of influencing or advising that elector as to how they should vote. Candidates and their assistants should be mindful of this particularly if campaigning occurs in rest homes or hospitals.

Election offences are detailed for your information on page 38 of this handbook. Please refer to them for your own protection.

Election advertising

Election advertising, using any media, must show an authorisation statement. This statement must include:

- the true name of the person under whose authority they have been produced; and
- the physical address (not a PO Box) of the person whose authority they have been produced. [Section 113, Local Electoral Act].

This includes election advertising on signs, in newspapers, on flyers and posters, on vehicles and on election websites.

Relevant criteria as contained in the Local Electoral Act 2001 are:

113 Advertisements for candidates

- (1) No person may publish or cause to be published in any newspaper, periodical, notice, poster, pamphlet, handbill, billboard, or card, or broadcast or permit to be broadcast over any radio or television station, any advertisement that is used or appears to be used to promote or procure the election of a candidate at an election, unless subsection (2) or subsection (4) applies.
- (2) A person may publish or cause or permit to be published an advertisement of the kind described in subsection (1) if -
 - a. the publication of that advertisement is authorised in writing by the candidate or the candidate's agent or, in the case of an advertisement relating to more than 1 candidate, the candidates or an agent acting for all of those candidates; and
 - b. the advertisement contains a statement setting out the true name of the person or persons for whom or at whose direction it is published and the address of their place of residence or business.

- (3) A candidate is not responsible for an act committed by an agent without the consent or connivance of the candidate.
- (4) A person may publish or cause to be published an advertisement of the kind described in subsection (1) if -
 - a. the publication of the advertisement is endorsed by an organisation or body representing residents or ratepayers in the community or district in which the advertisement is published; and
 - b. the advertisement contains a statement setting out -
 - i. the true name of the person or persons for whom or at whose direction it is published and the address of their residence or place of business; and
 - ii. the true name of the organisation or body that has endorsed the publication of the advertisement and the address of the place of business of that organisation or body.
- (5) This section does not restrict the publication of any news or comments relating to an election in a newspaper or other periodical, or on the Internet, or in any other medium of electronic communication accessible by the public, or in a radio or television broadcast made by a broadcaster within the meaning of section 2 of the Broadcasting Act 1989.
- (6) A person who willfully contravenes subsection (1) commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $1,000.

Tāpaetanga pōti me ngā utu whakahaere - Electoral donations and expenses

Key message

Candidates need to be aware to keep a record of all donations received and expenses incurred in their election campaign. Election expenditure limits will apply, these depending on the population size of the area of the election the candidate is standing for.

Every candidate must, by law, complete an Electoral Donations and Expenses Return declaring all donations and expenses and forwarded to the electoral office by Friday 9 December 2022.

Electoral expenses

Candidates should be aware that candidate campaign expenditure limits are applicable. This means a limit has been placed on how much a candidate may spend on their campaign, and this includes donations and joint campaigning. The maximum amount spent must not exceed the limits set out below where the election covers a population range as detailed:

Local government area population	Expenditure limit
up to 4,999	$3,500
5,000-9,999	$7,000
10,000-19,999	$14,000
20,000-39,999	$20,000
40,000-59,999	$30,000
60,000-79,999	$40,000
80,000-99,999	$50,000
100,000-149,999	$55,000
150,000-249,999	$60,000
250,000 -1,000,000	$70,000
1,000,000 or more	$100,000*

* Plus 50 cents for each elector

[NOTE: Expenditure limits are inclusive of GST].

Electoral expenses are defined as relating to electoral activity which can comprise advertising, broadcasting or communicating material to the public (electronically or otherwise). These electoral expenses are generally funded by the candidate and are not reimbursable from the organisation the candidate is standing for.

The estimated population distribution for the Taranaki Regional Council (population estimates as at 30 June 2020) is:

Constituency	Population	Limit $
New Plymouth General	61,900	$40,000
North Taranaki General	25,400	$20,000
South Taranaki General	29,100	$20,000
Stratford General	9,980	$7,000
Taranaki Māori	14,600	$14,000

source: Statistics New Zealand as at 30 June 2020

The period for which campaign expenditure limits apply is three months before election day (i.e. 8 July 2022 to 8 October 2022). However legislation further specifies that all expenses incurred before the three month period for campaign expenditure and used during the three month period, must be fairly apportioned and included in the Return of Electoral Donations and Expenses.

Where an electoral expense relates to more than one candidate, an equitable apportionment between candidates is required.

Nomination deposits, voluntary labour and election sign framework are not electoral expenses and therefore should not be included in the Return of Electoral Donations and Expenses.

Electoral donations

a. Candidate donations

A candidate donation is a donation of money, goods or services that is made for use in the candidate's campaign.

Candidate donations, and contributions to donations, of more than $1,500 (inc GST) are required to be declared in the candidate return of donations and expenses. A series of donations made by one person that adds up to more than $1,500 must also be declared.

A candidate donation includes:

- where a candidate is provided with goods or services free of charge that have a reasonable market value greater than $300;
- where a candidate is provided with discounted goods or services and the reasonable market value of the goods or services is greater than $300, the difference between the contract or agreed price and the reasonable market value of those goods and services is a donation;
- where a candidate sells over-valued goods or services the difference between the price paid and the reasonable market value is a donation, for example a fundraising auction or dinner.

The following are not deemed a donation:

- volunteer labour;
- goods or services provided free of charge to a candidate, or to any person on the candidate's behalf that have a reasonable market value of $300 or less; or
- money provided by the candidate for their own campaign.

If a person or organisation gives or pays for goods or services that would otherwise be candidate election expenses, the reasonable market value of those items, whatever their value, should be recorded as an election expense. If the reasonable market value of the items exceeds $300 it should also be recorded as a donation.

b. Donations made up of contributions

Donations to candidates can be made up of pooled funds contributed by more than one person (referred to as donations funded from contributions). These types of donations include, for example, campaign donations made through a trust, or where there is a fundraising collection for a candidate's campaign.

The total proceeds of a collection are treated as a donation. The person who collects the money will normally be the donor. The individuals who contribute to the collection are contributors.

If a candidate donation, other than an anonymous donation, is made up of contributions, the transmitter or donor must tell the candidate:

- the name and address of the donor;
- whether the donation is made up of contributions;
- the total amount of individual contributions of $1,500 or less; and
- in the case of individual contributions greater than $1,500, the name, address, and contribution of each contributor.

If the candidate knows, or has reasonable grounds to believe, that the donor has failed to supply information about contributions, the whole donation must be returned to the donor.

c. Transmitted donations

A donation can be made either directly by the donor to the candidate or indirectly by a transmitter who transmits a donation to the candidate on someone else's behalf, for example via a lawyer's trust fund. Any person who receives a candidate donation on the candidate's behalf must transmit it to the candidate within 10 working days.

When transmitting a donation, the transmitter must tell the candidate:

- that the donation is being transmitted on behalf of a donor;
- the name and address of the donor;
- whether the donation is made up of contributions;
- the total amount of contributions of $1,500 or less; and
- in the case of contributions greater than $1,500, the name, address, and contribution of each contributor.

Where a transmitter does not disclose the name and address of the donor, the donation must be treated as an anonymous donation.

d. Anonymous donations

Candidates are not permitted to retain anonymous donations exceeding $1,500. An anonymous donation is a donation made in such a way that the candidate who receives the donation does not know the identity of the donor and could not, in the circumstances, reasonably be expected to know the identity of the donor.

If a candidate receives an anonymous donation greater than $1,500, they may retain $1,500 of that donation. The balance of the donation must, within 20 working days of receipt, be paid to the electoral officer for payment into the general fund of the local authority.

Return of Electoral Donations and Expenses

A Return of Electoral Donations and Expenses form (a copy of this is located at the rear of this handbook) is required to be supplied to the electoral officer within 55 days after the official declaration (by 9 December 2022). This can be supplied to the electoral officer within 76 days after the official declaration if a candidate is overseas when successful candidates are declared elected.

The Return of Electoral Donations and Expenses must set out —

- the details of every electoral donation received by the candidate that, either on its own or when aggregated with all other donations made by or on behalf of the same donor for use in the same campaign, exceeds $1,500 in sum or value; and
- the details in respect of every anonymous electoral donation received by the candidate that exceeds $1,500; and
- details of the candidate's electoral expenses.

The details of every electoral donation exceeding $1,500 are -

- the name of the donor; and
- the address of the donor; and
- the amount of the donation or in the case of aggregated donations, the total amount of the donations; and
- the date the donation was received or, in the case of aggregated donations, the date that each donation was received.

The details of every anonymous donation exceeding $1,500 are —

- the date the donation was received; and
- the amount of the donation; and
- the amount paid to the electoral officer and the date the payment was made.

With respect to electoral expenses, the return must set out separately the name and description of every person or body of persons to whom or which any sum was paid, and the reason for which it was paid. Sums paid in excess of $200 (GST inclusive) must be vouched by an invoice or a bill and a receipt.

Candidates are advised to retain all invoices and receipts relating to electoral expenses should these be required in the event of a challenge. They should not be submitted with the return.

Once the Return of Electoral Donations and Expenses forms have been received by the electoral officer they become public documents and are to be kept for a public inspection period of seven years. During this period, the returns:

- are placed on council's website;
- can be inspected by any person;
- copies can be made available if requested.

This is a requirement under section 112F of the Local Electoral Act 2001.

Relevant legislation

Relevant definitions as contained in the Local Electoral Act 2001 are:

Subpart 1—Electoral donations

103A Interpretation:

In this subpart and subpart 3, unless the context otherwise requires,— anonymous, in relation to an electoral donation, means a donation that is made in such a way that the candidate who receives the donation—

- a. does not know the identity of the donor; and
- b. could not, in the circumstances, reasonably be expected to know the identity of the donor contribution means any thing (being money or the equivalent of money or goods or services or a combination of those things) that makes up a donation or is included in a donation or has been used to wholly or partly fund a donation, and that—

- a. does not know the identity of the donor; and
 - i. to the donor; or
 - ii. to a person who was required or expected to pass on all or any of its amount or value to the donor, whether directly or indirectly (for example, through one or more intermediaries, trustees, or nominees); and
- b. would have been a donation if it had been given directly to the candidate; and
- c. was given in the knowledge or expectation (whether by reference to a trust, an agreement, or an understanding) that it would be wholly or partly applied to make up, or to be included in, or to fund, a donation contributor means a person who makes a contribution and who immediately before making the contribution—

- a. beneficially holds any money, or the equivalent of money, or any goods that make up the contribution or are included in the contribution; or
- b. provides any services that make up the contribution or are included in the contribution or pays for those services out of money that the person beneficially holds donation funded from contributions means a donation that is made up of, includes, or is wholly or partly funded from one or more contributions donor means a person who makes an electoral donation

electoral donation or donation means a donation (whether of money or of the equivalent of money or of goods or services or of a combination of those things) that is made to a candidate, or to any person on the candidate's behalf, for use in the candidate's campaign for election and—

- a. includes,—
 - i. where goods or services are provided to a candidate, or to any person on the candidate's behalf, under a contract or an arrangement at a value that is less than their reasonable market value, the latter being a value that exceeds $300, the amount of the difference between the former value and the reasonable market value of those goods or services; and
 - ii. where goods or services are provided by a candidate under a contract or an arrangement at a value that is more than their reasonable market value, the amount of the difference between that value and the reasonable market value of those goods or services; and
- b. excludes—
 - i. the labour of any person that is provided to a candidate free of charge by that person; and
 - ii. goods or services provided free of charge to a candidate, or to any person on the candidate's behalf, that have a reasonable market value of $300 or less.

receive, in relation to a donation, means to get a donation that has been given or sent by—

- c. the donor directly; or
- d. the donor indirectly, via a transmitter

transmitter means a person to whom a donor gives or sends a donation for transmittal to a candidate.

103B Donations and contributions include GST

All references to the amount or value of a donation or contribution are inclusive of any goods and services tax incurred by the donor or contributor in respect of the goods or services donated or contributed.

103C Donations to be transmitted to candidate

Every person, other than a candidate, to whom an electoral donation is given or sent must, within 10 working days after receiving the donation, transmit the donation to the candidate.

103D Contributors to be identified

- (1) This section applies to a donation (other than an anonymous donation) that is made up of, includes, or is wholly or partly funded from one or more contributions.
- (2) If this section applies to a donation, the donor must, at the time of making the donation, disclose—

- a. the fact that the donation is funded from contributions; and
 - b. the following information about any contribution that, either on its own or when aggregated with other contributions made by the same contributor to the donation, exceeds $1,500 in sum or value:
 - i. the name of the contributor; and
 - ii. the address of the contributor; and
 - iii. the amount of the contribution or, in the case of aggregated contributions, the total amount of the aggregated contributions; and
 - c. the total of all of the amounts disclosed under paragraph (b)(iii) in relation to the donation; and
 - d. the total of all of the other contributions made in relation to the donation.
- (3) A candidate must give back to the donor the entire amount of the donation, or its entire value, if the candidate knows, or has reasonable grounds to believe, that the donor has failed to comply with subsection (2) in any respect.
 - (4) For the purpose of section 112A, any amount given back by a candidate under subsection (3) is taken not to have been received by the candidate.

103E Offence relating to contravention of section 103D

A donor who fails to comply with section 103D with the intention of concealing the identity of any or all of the contributors commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $5,000.

103F Identity of donor to be disclosed by transmitter, if known

- (1) When a transmitter transmits a donation to a candidate on behalf of the donor, the transmitter must disclose to the candidate—
 - a. the fact that the donation is transmitted on behalf of the donor; and
 - b. the name and address of the donor; and
 - c. whether section 103D applies to the donation and, if so, all information disclosed by the donor under subsection (2) of that section.
- (2) Where a transmitter does not disclose, or is unable to disclose, the information required by subsection (1), then the donation must be treated as an anonymous donation.

103G Offence relating to contravention of section 103F

A transmitter who fails to comply with section 103F(1) with the intention of concealing the identity of the donor or any or all of the contributors commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $5,000.

103H Disclosure of identity of donor

If any person involved in the administration of the affairs of a candidate in relation to their election campaign knows the identity of the donor of an anonymous donation exceeding $1,500, the person must disclose the identity of the donor to the candidate.

103I Offence relating to contravention of section 103H

A person who fails to comply with section 103H with the intention of concealing the identity of the donor commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $5,000.

103J Anonymous donation

- (1) If an anonymous donation exceeding $1,500 is received by a candidate in relation to an election campaign, the candidate must, within 20 working days of receiving the donation, pay to the electoral officer responsible for the conduct of the election to which that campaign relates the amount of the donation, or its value, less $1,500.
- (2) If an anonymous donation exceeding $1,500 is received by a candidate who is seeking election to more than one office, the candidate must—
 - a. designate one election campaign for election to one office for which the donation will be used; and
 - b. within 20 working days of receiving the donation, pay to the electoral officer responsible for the conduct of the election to which that campaign relates the amount of the donation, or its value, less $1,500.
- (3) An electoral officer who receives an amount under subsection (1) or (2) must, within 20 working days of receiving that amount,—
 - a. issue a receipt to the candidate; and
 - b. pay the amount into the general fund of the local authority that appointed the electoral officer.

103K Offence relating to contravention of section 103J

- (1) A person who enters into an agreement, arrangement, or understanding with any other person that has the effect of circumventing section 103J(1) or (2) commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $5,000.
- (2) A candidate who contravenes section 103J(1) or (2) commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $5,000.

103L Records of electoral donations

- (1) A candidate must keep proper records of all donations received by him or her.
- (2) A candidate who fails, without reasonable excuse, to comply with subsection (1) commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $5,000.

Subpart 2—Electoral expenses

104 Interpretation:

In this subpart and subpart 3,— applicable period before the close of polling day, means the period beginning three months before the close of polling day and ending with the close of polling day electoral activity, in relation to a candidate at an election, means an activity—

- a. that is carried out by the candidate or with the candidate's authority; and
- b. that relates to the candidate solely in the candidate's capacity as a candidate and not to the candidate—
 - i. in their capacity as a member of the local authority or local board or community board, or as the holder of any other office; or
 - ii. in any other capacity; and
- c. that comprises —
 - i. advertising of any kind; or
 - ii. radio or television broadcasting; or
 - iii. publishing, issuing, distributing, or displaying addresses, notices, posters, pamphlets, handbills, billboards, and cards; or
 - iv. any electronic communication to the public, including (without limitation) the establishment or operation of a website or other method of communication to the public using the Internet; and
- d. that relates exclusively to the campaign for the election of the candidate; and
- e. that takes place within the applicable period before the close of polling day.

electoral expenses, in relation to a candidate at an election—

- a. means expenses that are incurred by or on behalf of the candidate in respect of any electoral activity; and
- b. includes expenses that are incurred by or on behalf of the candidate, before or after the applicable period before the close of polling day, in respect of any electoral activity; and
- c. includes the reasonable market value of any materials applied in respect of any electoral activity that are given to the candidate or that are provided to the candidate free of charge or below reasonable market value; and
- d. includes the cost of any printing or postage in respect of any electoral activity, whether or not the expenses in respect of the printing or postage are incurred by or on behalf of the candidate; but

- e. does not include the expenses of operating a vehicle on which election advertising appears if that vehicle is used in good faith by the candidate as the candidate's personal means of transport; and
- f. does not include expenses incurred by the candidate in preparing a candidate profile statement; and
- g. does not include the labour of any person that is provided to the candidate free of charge by that person; and
- h. does not include the cost of any framework (other than a commercial framework) that supports a hoarding on which an advertisement is displayed.

population means the population, as at the day that is three months before the close of polling day, of a local government area as specified in a certificate issued in respect of that area by the Government Statistician.

105 Periods for claiming and paying expenses

- (1) No claim against a candidate, or against any agent of a candidate, in respect of any electoral expenses is recoverable unless it is sent to the candidate within 30 days after the day on which the successful candidates are declared to be elected.
- (2) All electoral expenses incurred by or on behalf of a candidate must be paid within 60 days after the day on which the successful candidates are declared to be elected.
- (3) A person who makes a payment in breach of this section commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $5,000.

106 Procedure if claim disputed

- (1) If a candidate, in the case of a claim for electoral expenses sent in to him or her within the time allowed by this Act, disputes it, or fails to pay it within 60 days,—
 - a. the claim is a disputed claim; and
 - b. the claimant may, if they thinks fit, within a further 30 days, bring an action for the disputed claim in any court of competent jurisdiction.
- (2) Any sum paid by the candidate to satisfy the judgment or order of the court in any action referred to in subsection (1) is to be treated as paid within the time allowed by this Act.

107 Leave to pay claim after time limited

- (1) A District Court may, on the application of the claimant or the candidate, grant leave to the candidate to pay a disputed claim, or to pay a claim for any electoral expenses, even though it is sent in after the time allowed by this Act, if the court considers it in the interests of justice to grant that leave.

- (2) Any sum specified in the order granting that leave may be paid by the candidate and, when paid, is to be treated as paid within the time allowed by this Act.

108 Payments to be vouched by bill

Every payment made in respect of any electoral expenses must, except when it is less than $200 (inclusive of goods and services tax), be vouched by—

- a. a bill stating the particulars; and
- b. a receipt.

111 Maximum amount of electoral expenses (refer to page 19 in this handbook)

112 Apportionment of electoral expenses

- (1) If any activity of the kind described in paragraphs (a) to (d) of the definition of the term electoral activity (as set out in section 104) is, in relation to a candidate at an election, carried on both before and within the applicable period before the close of polling day,—
 - a. the expenses incurred in respect of the activity (being expenses incurred by or on behalf of the candidate) must be properly apportioned so that a fair proportion of those expenses is attributed to the carrying on of the activity in the applicable period before the close of polling day; and
 - b. the fair proportion of those expenses are electoral expenses.
- (2) If any election activity relates exclusively to campaigns for the election of two or more candidates, any electoral expenses in respect of that electoral activity must be apportioned equitably in relation to each of those candidates.

112AA Offence to pay electoral expenses in excess of relevant prescribed maximum

- (1) This section applies to any candidate or other person who directly or indirectly pays or knowingly aids or abets any person in paying for or on account of any electoral expenses any sum in excess of the relevant maximum amount prescribed by section 111.
- (2) The candidate or person commits an offence and is liable on conviction—
 - a. to a term of imprisonment not exceeding two years, or a fine not exceeding $10,000, if they knew the payment was in excess of the relevant prescribed maximum amount; or
 - b. to a fine not exceeding $5,000 in any other case, unless they proves that they took all reasonable steps to ensure that the electoral expenses did not exceed the relevant prescribed maximum amount.

Subpart 3—Return of electoral donations and expenses

112A Return of electoral donations and expenses

- (1) Within 55 days after the day on which the successful candidates at any election are declared to be elected, every candidate at the election must file a return of electoral donations and expenses.
- (2) However, in any case where a candidate is outside New Zealand on the day on which the successful candidates are declared to be elected (election result day), the return must be filed within 76 days after election result day.
- (3) The return of electoral donations and expenses must set out—
 - a. the details specified in subsection (4) in respect of every electoral donation (other than a donation of the kind referred to in paragraph (c)) received by the candidate that, either on its own or when aggregated with all other donations made by or on behalf of the same donor for use in the same campaign, exceeds $1,500 in sum or value; and
 - b. whether any donation is funded from contributions, and if so, and to the extent known or ascertainable from the information supplied under section 103D, the details specified in subsection (5) in respect of every contribution that, either on its own or when aggregated with other contributions by the same contributor to the donation, exceeds $1,500 in sum or value; and
 - c. the details specified in subsection (6) in respect of every anonymous electoral donation received by the candidate that exceeds $1,500; and
 - d. details of the candidate's electoral expenses.
- (4) The details referred to in subsection (3)(a) are—
 - a. the name of the donor; and
 - b. the address of the donor; and
 - c. the amount of the donation or, in the case of aggregated donations, the total amount of the donations; and
 - d. the date the donation was received or, in the case of aggregated donations, the date that each donation was received.
- (5) The details referred to in subsection (3)(b) are—
 - a. the name of the contributor; and
 - b. the address of the contributor; and
 - c. the amount of the contribution or, in the case of aggregated contributions, the total amount of the aggregated contributions.
- (6) The details referred to in subsection (3)(c) are—

- a. the date the donation was received; and
 - b. the amount of the donation; and
 - c. the amount paid to the electoral officer under section 103J(1) or (2) and the date that payment was made.
- (7) Every return filed under this section must be in the form prescribed in Schedule 2.
 - (8) It is the duty of every electoral officer to ensure that this section is complied with.
 - (9) In this section, file in relation to a return, means to send the return to the electoral officer responsible for the conduct of the election.

112B Nil return

If a candidate considers that there is no relevant information to disclose under section 112A, the candidate must file a nil return under that section.

112C Failure to file return of electoral donations and expenses

 - ii. the true name of the organisation or body who has endorsed the publication of the advertisement and the address of the place of business of that organisation or body.
- (5) This section does not restrict the publication of any news or comments relating to an election in a newspaper or other periodical, or on the Internet, or in any other medium of electronic communication accessible by the public, or in a radio or television broadcast made by a broadcaster within the meaning of section 2 of the Broadcasting Act 1989.
 - (6) A person who willfully contravenes subsection (1) commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $1,000.

114 Use of public money

Sections 111 and 112 do not validate any use of public money that would otherwise be unlawful.

Part 5A—Electoral advertising

113 Advertisements for candidates

- (1) No person may publish or cause to be published in any newspaper, periodical, notice, poster, pamphlet, handbill, billboard, or card, or broadcast or permit to be broadcast over any radio or television station, any advertisement that is used or appears to be used to promote or procure the election of a candidate at an election, unless subsection (2) or subsection (4) applies.
- (2) A person may publish or cause or permit to be published an advertisement of the kind described in subsection (1) if—
 - a. the publication of that advertisement is authorised in writing by the candidate or the candidate's agent or, in the case of an advertisement relating to more than one candidate, the candidates or an agent acting for all of those candidates; and
 - b. the advertisement contains a statement setting out the true name of the person or persons for whom or at whose direction it is published and the address of their place of residence or business.
- (3) A candidate is not responsible for an act committed by an agent without the consent or connivance of the candidate.
- (4) A person may publish or cause or permit to be published an advertisement of the kind described in subsection (1) if—

Kaupapa here o te kaunihera mō ngā haina pōti - Council policy on election signs

Taranaki Regional Council candidates must comply with the relevant district council rules when erecting election signs as follows:

Election signs in the New Plymouth District Council area

There are some limitations on the erection and placement of election signage.

No election signage is permitted in or above public areas. This includes reserves, roads, footpaths, berms and state highways. Election signage cannot be fixed to utility poles or other structures on public land, including vehicles and trailers.

Infringement fines may apply for non-compliance.

Election signs are classified as advertising signs in New Plymouth District Plan. The following requirements are set out in the district plan.

Duration of display

(Note: different rules apply for Parliamentary General Elections.)

Maximum of 12 months display. Must be removed within seven days of the election date (by Sunday 16 October 2022).

Lettering size on signs

In areas where speed limits are:

Less than 70kph 120mm or greater.
More than 70kph 160mm or greater.

Proximity of signs

In areas where speed limits are:

Less than 70kph:

- No rules

More than 70kph:

- Must be placed at least 0.6m X the posted speed limit away from each other
- Must not restrict views for at least 180 metres.

Lighting/moving parts

There are limitations on flashing, blinking and moving lights and mechanical movement of any part of the sign. Please contact the council to find out the rules before erecting your sign.

Building consent

Usually required if the sign structure exceeds:

3 metres (in height); or 6m² (in area).

Mounted signs on vehicles including trailers

You cannot mount signs on vehicles (including trailers) and then leave them parked up on roads or public places unless the vehicle is being used primarily for transport purposes.

What election signs must contain

A statement of the person(s) who have approved the sign providing an address of their residence or business.

Where the sign provides an endorsement of a candidate, the sign must also state the name of an organisation or body endorsing the candidate the advertisement and the address of the place of business of that organisation or body.

The statement(s) are exempt from the lettering sizes as stated above.

What election signs can't contain

You cannot copy the form, colours, shape or messages of any official signs.

Other matters

Other district plan rules may apply. Please contact the council if you have queries not covered by the matters above.

Election signs in the South Taranaki District Council area

Council has a policy around election signs and candidates should familiarise themselves with this. Election signs are permitted two months before election day (from 8 August 2022) but must be removed by midnight 7 October 2022.

Displaying election signs

Local authorities are responsible for regulating when, where and how signs, including election signs can be displayed. Candidates and parties should consult with their local authority about the rules in their area before putting up any election signs.

Timing and size

The Electoral Act 1993 allows for election signs up to three square metres in size to be put up in the two months before election day.

This provision overrides any more restrictive local authority rules about size and timing of the display of signs.

Any local authority rules about things like application procedures and the location and density of signs still apply.

Larger signs may be put up if local authority rules allow.

Signs may be put up earlier if local authority rules allow.

It is an offence under the Electoral Act to display election signs on election day. There is no other restriction in the Act on when electoral signs may be displayed.

Public places bylaw

South Taranaki District Council:

Public Places Bylaw:

23.4 Election Signs:

23.4.1 No person may display an election sign on any land, including public places, without the written consent of the owner or occupier of that land.

23.5 Breaches of this section

23.5.1 Council reserves the right to remove any sign or flag located in a public space which is in breach of this Bylaw, without notice to the owner of that sign or flag.

23.5.2 All costs involved in the removal, storage and return of property will be at the expense of the sign or flag owner.

Please note: All signs are to display the true name and physical address (place of residence or business) of the person authorising them.

[See section 113 (2)(b) Local Electoral Act 2001].

It is recommended that any candidate wishing to place election signs on council land contact the council directly on 0800 111 323 or 06 278 0555 to discuss.

Election signs in the Stratford District Council area

Council has a policy around election signs and candidates should familiarise themselves with this. Election signs are permitted three months before election day (from 8 July 2022) but must be removed by midnight 7 October 2022.

Please note: All signs etc are to display the true name and physical address (place of residence or business) of the person authorising them.

[Section 113(2)(b) Local Electoral Act 2001]

Election signs

Control of Advertising Signs Bylaw 2020:

Size: The maximum permitted size of an election sign on private property is:

- residential zone, 1m² per site
- rural/residential zone, 2m² per site
- rural zone, 3m² per site
- business zone, 4m² per site
- protected area zone (Stratford Urban area only), 4m² per site
- commercial zone, 4m² per site

Placement:

1. Signs advertising a candidate standing for election are treated as temporary signs and cannot be a danger to the public or obstructing traffic, driver view etc.
2. Signs must only be located on private property with landowner permission.
3. Signs are not permitted on council roads, state highways, heritage sites, council reserves or any other council property.
4. Signs must not obstruct driver visibility along the road, at intersections or driveways, or at a railway crossing.
5. Signs must not be placed within 15 metres of a traffic safety or directional sign.
6. Signs located next to a state highway must have a minimum lettering height 120mm where the speed limit is less than 70km/h, and 160mm where the speed limit is 70km/h or greater.
7. Signs must not be rotating, flashing, reflective, illuminated or poorly maintained.

Key message

Electoral rolls for the Taranaki Regional Council are produced by the three constituent territorial authorities (New Plymouth District, South Taranaki District and Stratford District) and may be obtained from the respective constituent territorial authority offices.

The preliminary electoral roll, containing both resident and non-resident ratepayer electors, will be available for public inspection from 15 July 2022 to 12 August 2022. All registered electors (as at 12 August 2022) whose name is on the final electoral roll will be issued voting packs.

Resident electors

Persons are qualified to be enrolled on the Parliamentary electoral roll if they:

- are a New Zealand citizen or a permanent resident of New Zealand; and
- are 18 years of age or over; and
- have at some time resided continuously in New Zealand for one year or longer; and
- are not disqualified under the Electoral Act 1993.

Residents of each constituent territorial authority area are enrolled automatically on the Residential Electoral Roll if they are registered as Parliamentary electors. Therefore, there is no need to enrol separately for these elections.

Non-Resident ratepayer electors

Residents who are not residents of a constituent territorial authority within the region but pay rates on a property in another constituent territorial authority may be entitled to enrol on a respective Ratepayer Electoral Roll for that local authority area.

Companies, businesses, trusts, corporations or societies which are ratepayers of a property within the region may also nominate an elector to vote on their behalf, provided any such elector resides outside the region.

Partners, joint tenants and tenants in common who collectively pay rates on a property within the region may also nominate one of the group who is an elector to vote on their behalf, provided any such elector resides outside the region.

Preliminary electoral roll

A copy of the preliminary electoral roll for the Taranaki Regional Council (by constituent territorial authority) will be available for public inspection from Friday 15 July 2022 to Friday 12 August 2022 at:

- each constituent territorial authority office in the Taranaki region;
- each constituent territorial authority library in the Taranaki region;

The preliminary electoral roll for each constituent territorial authority will be contained in one book, with the residential roll located at the front and the ratepayer roll located at the rear.

Details appearing on the preliminary electoral roll are electors names (surname, then first names) listed alphabetically. The qualifying address of the elector is shown alongside. No postal addresses or occupations are shown.

Any alterations to the residential electoral roll should be made:

- by completing the appropriate form at any NZ Post agency; or
- by telephoning 0800 ENROLNOW (0800 36 76 56); or
- by accessing the Electoral Commission website - www.vote.nz

Any alterations to the non-resident ratepayer electoral roll should be made through the electoral office (telephone 0800 922 822).

Copies of a hardcopy constituent territorial authority preliminary electoral roll may be purchased from the respective constituent territorial authority office.

Costs of the electoral rolls will be:

- New Plymouth District Council - $75.00 including GST
- South Taranaki District Council - $50.00 including GST
- Stratford District Council - $35.00 including GST

Candidates or candidate scrutineers may request, before the close of voting, a listing of names of persons from whom voting documents have been returned. Such a request can be supplied in either hardcopy or electronic copy, and a reasonable charge will be made for this. [Section 68 (6) Local Electoral Act 2001].

Final electoral roll

The final electoral roll is produced once the preliminary electoral roll closes on 12 August 2022. The final electoral roll contains the details used for issuing voting documents. Copies of this roll will also be available for purchase from constituent territorial authorities.

Roll data requests

Information contained on the electoral roll is not available from the electoral office in an electronic form, but candidates or political parties may request an electronic listing of resident electors from the Electoral Commission (provided the criteria of section 114 of the Electoral Act 1993 are met). An application form is required to be completed, and these are available upon request from the Electoral Commission.

Note however that elector details for the area a candidate is standing for only will be provided, and this data is unable to be passed on to any third-party and must be used for election purposes.

With regard to a listing of non-resident ratepayer electors, a candidate may purchase mailing labels and/or postal address lists from the electoral office.

Pōti me te pōti motuhake - Voting and special voting

Key message

The three-week voting period is Friday 16 September to noon Saturday 8 October 2022. Voting packs are posted to electors from Friday 16 September 2022. Special votes are available to those who have not received an ordinary vote during the voting period or enrolled on the electoral roll after 12 August 2022.

Postal voting

The election is being conducted by postal vote. Voting documents are posted to all electors whose names appear on the final electoral roll for the respective constituent territorial authority with delivery commencing Friday 16 September 2022. All electors should have received their voting documents by Wednesday 21 September 2022.

Each elector, after receiving their voting document, should complete it, seal it in the return, postage paid envelope, and post or deliver it to the electoral officer.

If hand delivered, completed voting documents can be lodged at:

- New Plymouth District Council's Civic Centre, 84 Liardet Street, New Plymouth;
- South Taranaki District Council's Administration Building, 105-111 Albion Street, Hāwera;
- Stratford District Council's Administration Building, 63 Miranda Street, Stratford.

When posting voting documents back, it is recommended these be posted by 5pm, Tuesday 4 October 2022 to guarantee delivery before the close of voting (noon, Saturday 8 October 2022).

There is no online voting option for these elections.

Special votes

Special votes are available to electors:

- whose names do not appear on the final electoral roll, but who qualify as electors;

- who did not receive a voting document previously posted to them;
- who spoil or damage a voting document previously posted to them.

Special votes are available from Friday 16 September 2022 to noon, Saturday 8 October 2022 at a respective constituent territorial authority electoral office, or by telephoning the electoral office on 0800 922 822.

Special votes can be posted directly to electors. The completed voting document however, must be returned to the electoral officer by noon on election day.

Special votes require the completion of a statutory declaration. This is a legal requirement and a protection for electors against possible duplicate voting.

If an elector requests a special vote and is not on the Parliamentary electoral roll (e.g. just turned 18 years of age), the person must enrol by Friday 7 October 2022 (the day before the close of voting). An application for registration as a Parliamentary elector may be obtained:

- from any NZ Post agency; or
- telephoning 0800 ENROLNOW (0800 36 76 56); or
- by accessing the Electoral Commission website - www.vote.nz

After voting closes, special vote declarations are forwarded to Registrars of Electors for verification that the elector is eligible and has enrolled as a Parliamentary elector.

Special votes cannot be collected by candidates or their assistants for distribution to electors.

Te hātepe moata mō te hokinga o ngā tūhinga pōti - Early processing of returned voting documents

Key message

During the voting period, returned voting documents are able to be opened and processed, but not counted.

Processing of votes

Returned voting documents are able to be opened and processed during all or part of the voting period prior to the close of voting.

The early processing of voting documents involves the following functions:

- roll scrutiny (marking people off the roll);
- opening of envelopes;
- extracting of voting documents;
- checking for informal or duplicate votes;
- electronic capture of all valid votes (twice).

No tallying of votes is undertaken until after the close of voting (noon, Saturday 8 October 2022).

The early processing functions are undertaken with strict security measures. One or more Justices of the Peace observe all early processing functions, and sign a statement at the end of the processing that all functions were undertaken correctly and conformed with the strict legal requirements.

Candidate scrutineers are not permitted to observe the early processing functions.

Key message

Candidates are able to appoint scrutineers to observe certain functions. Appointment of scrutineers must be made by noon, Friday 7 October 2022.

Appointment of scrutineers

Candidates may appoint scrutineers to oversee various functions of the election.

These functions are:

- the scrutiny of the roll;
- the preliminary count (after the close of voting);
- the official count.

Each candidate may appoint one or more scrutineers for each of the above functions, but only one scrutineer for each candidate may be present at any one time.

A scrutineer cannot be:

- a candidate;
- a member or employee of any local authority or community board for which an election is being conducted;
- under 18 years old.

Each scrutineer must be appointed by a candidate, such appointment to be in writing to the electoral officer. For a person to be appointed as a scrutineer, the letter of appointment must be received by the electoral officer no later than noon Friday 7 October 2022 [Section 68, Local Electoral Act 2001].

A standard letter for the appointment of a scrutineer is located at the end of this handbook.

Each appointed scrutineer must report initially to the electoral officer or deputy electoral officer, where a declaration pledging not to disclose any information coming to their knowledge, will need to be signed and a name tag issued. When departing the premises, scrutineers are to return their name tag to the electoral officer or deputy electoral officer.

Any scrutineer may leave or re-enter the place where election functions are being conducted, but it is an offence (and liable for a fine) to:

- make known for what candidate any voter has voted;
- make known the state of the election, or give or pretend to give any information by which the state of the election may be known, before the close of voting.

The scrutiny of the roll will be undertaken at the electoral office (Level 2, 198 Federal Street, Auckland), during normal office hours between Monday 19 September 2022 and to noon, Saturday 8 October 2022.

The preliminary count of votes will commence once voting closes at noon on Saturday 8 October 2022 at the electoral office.

The official count of votes will be undertaken once the preliminary count is concluded and the final result will be known on Thursday 13 October 2022. The official count will also occur at the electoral office.

The role of scrutineers is to ensure that election procedures are undertaken correctly and that the count of votes is done fairly and reasonably.

Mobile phones are prohibited within the secure area where the count will take place.

Key message

Election results will be released on three occasions:

Progress results around 2pm on election day, Saturday 8 October 2022.

Preliminary results on Sunday morning, 9 October 2022.

Final results on Thursday afternoon, 13 October 2022.

Progress results

The counting of votes will commence from noon Saturday, 8 October 2022 at the offices of Independent Election Services Ltd, Level 2, 198 Federal Street, Auckland.

As soon as practicable following the close of voting, progress results will be made available, these are likely to reflect approximately 92% of the votes cast.

Progress results will be available at approximately 2pm on election day.

Preliminary results

Preliminary results will be available once all votes that are hand-delivered on election morning have been received and processed. This is expected to be on Sunday morning 9 October 2022.

Both progress and preliminary results will be available:

- by accessing council's website www.trc.govt.nz
- by telephoning the electoral office on 0800 922 822.

Final results

Once all special votes have been validated by the Electoral Commission, a final result is able to be announced. This is expected late afternoon on Thursday 13 October 2022.

Release of results

Where email addresses have been provided, candidates will be emailed both the progress and preliminary results, once available.

All results will also be placed on council's website: www.trc.govt.nz

Te wā o te whakauru - Term of membership

Key message

All members leave office and come into office on the day after the declaration of results is publicly notified.

Term of membership

All members come into office for the Taranaki Regional Council on the day after the day the candidate is declared to be elected (i.e. the day after the first public notice declaring the result is made).

[Section 115, Local Electoral Act 2001]

All members leave office for the Taranaki Regional Council when the members elected at the next election come into office.

[Section 116, Local Electoral Act 2001]

If at the close of nominations, the number of candidates is less than the number of vacancies, the unfilled vacancies become extraordinary vacancies and are treated as occurring on polling day (8 October 2022). [Section 64, Local Electoral Act 2001]

Any such extraordinary vacancy is required to be filled by an election, which cannot occur any earlier than 17 February 2023. [Section 138A, Local Electoral Act 2001]

A member is disqualified from holding office in a local authority under the following provisions:

"Disqualification of members

- (1) A person's office as a member of a local authority is vacated if the person, while holding office as a member of the local authority, -
 - a. ceases to be an elector or becomes disqualified for registration as an elector under the Electoral Act 1993; or
 - b. is convicted of an offence punishable by a term of imprisonment of 2 years or more.
- (2) If subclause (1)(b) applies: -
 - a. the disqualification does not take effect -
 - i. until the expiration of the time for appealing against the conviction or decision; or
 - ii. if there is an appeal against the conviction or decision, until the appeal is determined; and
 - b. the person is deemed to have been granted leave of absence until the expiration of that time, and is not capable of acting as a member during that time.
- (3) person may not do an act as a member while disqualified under subclause (1) or while on leave of absence under subclause (2)"

 - b. for the purpose of obtaining their election; or
 - c. on account of that person or any other person having voted or refrained from voting, or being about to vote or refrain from voting.
- (2) Every holder of a license under the Sale and Supply of Alcohol Act 2012 commits the offence of treating who knowingly supplies any food, drink, entertainment, or provision-
 - a. to any person, if the supply is demanded for one or more of the purposes specified in subsection (1); or
 - b. to any person, whether an elector or not, for the purpose of obtaining the election of a candidate or affecting the result of a poll, and without receiving payment for it at the time when it is supplied.
- (3) Every elector who corruptly accepts or takes any such food, drink, entertainment, or provision also commits the offence of treating.
- (4) Despite subsections (1) to (3), the provision of light refreshments after any meeting relating to an election or poll does not constitute the offence of treating.
- (5) Every person who commits the offence of treating is liable on conviction to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 2 years.

127 Undue influence

- (1) Every person commits the offence of undue influence-
 - a. who, directly or indirectly, on that person's own or by another person, makes use of or threatens to make use of any force, violence, or restraint against any person-
 - i. in order to induce or compel that person to vote or refrain from voting;

- ii. on account of that person having voted or refrained from voting;
 - b. who, by abduction, duress, or any fraudulent device or means,-
 - i. impedes or prevents the free exercise of the vote of any elector;
 - ii. compels, induces, or prevails upon any elector either to vote or to refrain from voting.
- (2) Every person who commits the offence of undue influence is liable on conviction to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 2 years.

128 Personation

- (1) Every person commits the offence of personation who, at any election or poll,-
- a. votes in the name of some other person (whether living or dead), or of a fictitious person;
 - b. having voted, votes again at the same election or poll;
 - c. having returned a voting document, applies for or returns another voting document with the intention of returning an additional valid voting document or invalidating a vote already cast at the same election or poll (whether or not any voting document they returns is valid).
- (2) Every person who commits the offence of personation is liable on conviction to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 2 years.

129 Infringement of secrecy

- (1) Every electoral officer, deputy electoral officer, and other electoral official-
- a. must maintain and assist in maintaining the secrecy of the voting; and
 - b. must not communicate to any person, except for a purpose authorised by law, any information likely to compromise the secrecy of the voting.
- (2) No person, except as provided by this Act or regulations made under this Act, may-
- a. interfere with or attempt to interfere with a voter when marking, or recording their vote; or
 - b. attempt to obtain, in the building, or other place where the voter has marked or recorded their vote and immediately before or after that vote has been marked or recorded, any information as to any candidate for whom or the proposal for or against which the voter is about to vote or has voted; or

- c. communicate at any time to any person any information obtained in the building or other place where the voter has marked or recorded their vote and immediately before or after that vote has been marked or recorded, as to-
 - i. any candidate for whom, or the proposal for or against which the voter is about to vote or has voted; or
 - ii. any number on a voting document marked or transmitted by the voter.

- (3) Every person present at the counting of votes must-

- a. maintain and assist in maintaining the secrecy of the voting; and
- b. must not, except as is provided by this Act or regulations made under this Act, communicate any information obtained at that counting as to any candidate for whom or proposal for or against which any vote is cast by a particular voter.

- (4) No person may, directly or indirectly, induce any voter to display or provide access to their voting document or any copy of that document after it has been marked or transmitted, so as to make known to any person the name of any candidate for or against whom, or proposal for or against which, the voter has voted.
- (5) Every person commits an offence who contravenes or fails to comply with this section.
- (6) Every person who commits an offence against subsection (5) is liable on conviction to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months.

130 Disclosing voting or state of election or poll

- (1) Every electoral officer, deputy electoral officer, other electoral official, Justice of the Peace, or scrutineer commits an offence who-
- a. makes known for what candidate or candidates or for which proposal any particular voter has voted for or against, except as provided by this Act or regulations made under this Act; or
 - b. before the close of voting, makes known the state of the election or poll or gives or pretends to give any information by which the state of the election or poll may be known.
- (2) Subsection (1)(b) does not prevent an electoral officer from disclosing the total number of voting documents so far returned at an election or poll at any time during the voting period.
- (3) A person who commits an offence against subsection (1) is liable on conviction to a fine-

- a. not exceeding $5,000 for an electoral officer or deputy electoral officer:
- b. not exceeding $2,000 for any other person.

131 Penalty for electoral officer, deputy electoral officer, and other electoral officials

Every electoral officer, deputy electoral officer, or other electoral official commits an offence, and is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $2,000, who is guilty of any intentional or reckless act of commission or omission contrary to the provisions of this Act or regulations made under this Act in respect of any election or poll, and for which no other penalty is imposed by this Act or regulations made under this Act.

General provisions

137 Property may be stated as being in electoral officer

In any proceedings for an offence in relation to any voting documents or other official documents, files, records, instruments, or devices used officially for an election or poll, the property in those documents, files, records, appliances, and instruments is to be treated as that of the electoral officer at that election or poll.

138 Duty to take action in respect of offences

- (1) Subsection (2) applies if an electoral officer—
 - a. receives a written complaint that an offence has been committed under—
 - i. Part 5; or
 - ii. this Part; or
 - c. believes for any other reason that an offence has been committed under either of the Parts specified in paragraph (a).
- (2) If this subsection applies, the electoral officer must—
 - a. report the complaint or belief to the Police; and
 - b. provide the Police with the details of any inquiries that they considers may be relevant.
- (3) Subsection (2) does not prevent any person from reporting an alleged offence to the Police.
- (4) Despite subsection (2), an electoral officer is not required to report the failure by a candidate to file a return under section 112A if the candidate files the return promptly after being required to do so by the electoral officer.

138AA Time limit for prosecutions

- (1) A prosecution under section 112C must be commenced within six months of the date on which the return was required to be filed.
- (2) A prosecution under section 103K or 112D must be commenced—
 - a. within six months of the date on which the prosecutor is satisfied that there is sufficient evidence to warrant the commencement of the proceedings; but
 - b. not later than 3 years after the offence was committed.

Taiutu - Remuneration

Key message

Elected members are entitled to be paid for the work undertaken. This remuneration is generally by way of a base salary and allowances for such things as mileage etc.

Member remuneration

A remuneration pool is set by the Remuneration Authority. The newly elected council will decide how to apply the pool of funding. Some expenses are also reimbursed*.

As an indication, the current remuneration (as at 11 November 2021) is:

Position	$PA
Chairperson	$102,550
Deputy Chairperson of Regional Council	$56,042
Chairperson Executive, Audit and Risk Committee	$56,042
Chairperson Consents and Regulatory Committee	$56,042
Chairperson Policy and Planning Committee	$56,042
Chairperson Regional Transport Committee	$45,781
Chairperson Civil Defence Group Committee	$45,781
Councillor (no additional responsibility)	$39,466
Councillor (minimum allowable remuneration)	$37,493

*The chairperson currently has the full use of a council vehicle and a deduction is made from their salary to provide for this entitlement.

Councillors may claim reimbursement for travelling beyond set thresholds. Mileage is paid at $0.79 per kilometre for the first 14,000 kilometres and at $0.27 thereafter. Payment of expenses, reimbursements and allowances (e.g. training, accommodation, etc.) are subject to council's policy, which is itself subject to Remuneration Authority approval.

Communications devices will be provided to enable councillors to perform their duties.

- Health and safety responsibilities

Key message

All elected members of the Taranaki Regional Council are required to comply with the duties and obligations of the Health and Safety at Work Act 2015.

Health and Safety at Work Act 2015

Under the legislation an officer is someone who holds a position which allows them to exercise significant influence over the whole of council. At Taranaki Regional Council, elected members and the chief executive (and possibly others) are 'Officers'. The boards of council-controlled organisations and their chief executives are also officers.

As a PCBU (persons conducting a business or undertaking), council holds the primary duty to ensure people's safety. An officer's responsibility is to exercise due diligence to ensure that council complies with its duties and obligations under the Health and Safety at Work Act – similar to the responsibility councillors and local boards have to exercise due diligence over council's financial matters.

An officer's duty is important because leadership contributes to council's safety culture, and elected members need to have an understanding of what is required to manage council's risks.

Officers can rely on information provided to them by staff and experts so long as that reliance is reasonable. However, elected members and the chief executive must test and assess the advice provided to them to ensure they are confident their decisions have sufficiently considered health and safety factors. Officers must demonstrate that they have carefully considered health and safety.

There are six key aspects of officer due diligence. The legislation requires officers take reasonable steps to:

- (1) Acquire and keep up to date with health and safety knowledge and health and safety matters for council.
- (2) Understand council's operations and the associated hazards and risks.
- (3) Ensure council has appropriate resourcing and processes to eliminate or minimise risks to health and safety.
- (4) Ensure council has appropriate processes for receiving and considering information regarding incidents, hazards, and risks and for responding in a timely way to that information.
- (5) Ensure council has, and implements, processes for complying with any duty or obligation.
- (6) Verify the provision and use of resources and processes through reviews and audits.

Liability

Whilst officers do not have the same primary duty as the PCBU to directly ensure health and safety they must exercise due diligence to ensure that the PCBU is meeting its duties.

Elected members acting in their capacity as elected members (as distinguished from elected members acting in a governance role for another entity) are excluded from liability for the most serious offences under the new Act. However they may still be liable under some of the other requirements in the legislation – for example in some circumstances WorkSafe NZ could still serve an improvement notice on them.

Te wā i mua atu i te Pōtitanga - Pre-election period

Pre-election period communications

The triennial local body election will be held by postal voting from the third week in September 2022, culminating in election day on 8 October 2022.

Councillors may be aware that all elected members are impacted by the three month “pre-election period” which comes into effect on 8 July 2022. This period is the subject of guidelines produced by the Office of the Auditor General (OAG) which are intended to ensure that conduct by council staff is not perceived to support the election of a particular candidate.

This report summarises the relevant sections of these guidelines. Elected members are encouraged to be familiar with these, to ensure their own conduct during the pre-election period does not result in the guidelines being breached (or being perceived as having been breached).

Principle 12

A local authority must not promote, nor be perceived to promote, the re-election prospects of a sitting member. Therefore, the use of council resources for re-election purposes is unacceptable and possibly unlawful.

Promoting the re-election prospects of a sitting member, directly or indirectly, wittingly or unwittingly, is not part of the proper role of a local authority.

A council would be directly promoting a member’s re-election prospects if it allowed the member to use council communications facilities (such as stationery, postage, internet, email, or telephones) explicitly for campaign purposes.

Other uses of council communications facilities during a pre-election period may also be unacceptable. For example, allowing members access to council resources to communicate with constituents, even in their official capacities as members, could create a perception that the council is helping sitting members to promote their re-election prospects over other candidates. For this reason, elected members should ensure that any reports during the pre-election period do not include statements which could be perceived as campaigning on either their own behalf or of other candidates.

OAG recommends that mass communications facilities - such as council-funded newsletters to constituents and chairman’s or members’ columns in council publications - be suspended during the pre-election period.

Promoting the re-election prospects of a sitting member could also raise issues under the Local Electoral Act 2001. For example:

Local elections must be conducted in accordance with the principles set out in section 4 of the Local Electoral Act. The principles apply to any decision made by a council under that Act or any other Act, subject only to the limits of practicality. A breach of the principles can give rise to an “irregularity” which could result in an election result being overturned. In this context the principles relate to public confidence in the election process, transparency, and fairness. The conduct (including decision-making, activities, and public statements) of all elected members and council staff during the pre-election period is expected to uphold these principles.

The publication, issue, or distribution of information, and the use of electronic communications (including web site and email communication), by a candidate are “electoral activities” to which the rules concerning disclosure of electoral expenses apply.

“Electoral expenses” include:

- the reasonable market value of any materials applied in respect of any electoral activity that are given to the candidate or that are provided to the candidate free of charge or below reasonable market value; and
- the cost of any printing or postage in respect of any electoral activity.

A member's use of council resources for electoral purposes could therefore be an "electoral expense" which the member would have to declare – unless it could be shown that the communication also related to council business and was made in the candidate's capacity as a member.

Principle 13

Communications by or about members, in their capacities as spokespersons for council, during a pre-election period could result in the member achieving electoral advantage at ratepayers' expense. The chief executive officer (or his delegate) should actively manage the risk in accordance with the relevant electoral law.

Curtailling all council communications during a pre-election period is neither practicable nor (as far as mandatory communications, such as those required under the LGA, are concerned) possible. Routine council business must continue. In particular:

- some councils publish their annual reports during the months leading up to an October election, which would include information (including photographs) about sitting members;
- council leaders and spokespersons need to continue to communicate matters of council business to the public."

Further information about the election is available on council's website, including the candidate Information handbook which provides further information about legal requirements of candidates. Staff have also been briefed on expected conduct during the pre-election period.

RETURN OF ELECTORAL DONATIONS AND EXPENSES

(Under section 112A of the Local Electoral Act 2001)

I, a candidate for

at the election held on 8 October 2022, make the following declaration:

PART A: RETURN OF ELECTORAL DONATIONS (inclusive of GST)

I, make the following return of all electoral donations received by me that exceed $1,500:

Set out the following details in respect of every electoral donation received (other than an anonymous electoral donation) that, either on its own or when aggregated with all other donations made by or on behalf of the same donor for use in the same campaign, exceeds $1,500 in sum or value:

- the name of the donor;
- the address of the donor;
- the amount of the donation or, in the case of aggregated donations, the total amount of the donations;
- the date the donation was received or, in the case of aggregated donations, the date that each donation was received.

NB: Section 103A Local Electoral Act 2001 defines "donation" as money or the equivalent of money or of goods or services or of a combination of those things used in the candidate's election campaign over $300 in value. It excludes labour and goods and services that are provided free of charge reasonably valued at $300 or less.
