

Predator control workshop

If you are undertaking predator control, or thinking about getting involved, come along to this FREE workshop

Learn about the most effective way to protect our native plants and animals

Sunday 1 November

9.30am–3.30pm

Brian Bellringer Pavillion
Pukekura Park, New Plymouth

WORKSHOP PROGRAMME

9.30am Registration and a cup of tea	12.30pm Lunch will be provided
9.45am Mike Weren: Welcome	1.15pm Mark Savage: Controlled substances licence (CSL)
9.50am Jim Clarkson: Knowing your patch. Identifying threats.	1.30pm Predator Free NZ: Data Capture Tools
10.20am Halema Jamieson: Monitoring and detection	1.45pm Elise Smith: MAIN Trust - mapping and data analysis
10.50am Sean Gardiner: Plan your approach	2.00pm Action in Taranaki: (10 minute sessions)
11.20am Tools to do the job: (10 minute sessions)	Conrad O'Carroll: Parininihi / Whitecliffs
Stu Barr: Good Nature A12 & A24 traps	Bob Schumacher: Pouiatoa
Darren Peters: DOC series of traps	Gemma Green: Predator control on the Maunga
Sean Gardiner: Feral cats and hedgehogs	David Cockeram: Tom and Don's Bush KNE
– what are your options?	Kris Grabow: Community kiwi protection
Simon Collins: Rat control	3.00pm Discussion opportunity to share ideas
Dave West: Possum control	3.20pm Evaluation
Sean Gardiner: Fine tuning in the field - baits and lures, maintenance, reading field sign and moving trap locations	3.30pm Approx. finish

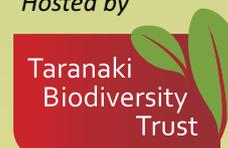

Please RSVP by Monday 26 October

(for catering purposes) to:

Leigh Honor ph. 06 765 7127 / leigh.honor@trc.govt.nz

Petrol vouchers are available for those travelling more than 50km one way. Contact Leigh to register for these.

Hosted by

Supported by DOC, NPDC and TRC