About the Wild for Taranaki

The Charitable Trust was established in 2015 by 19 groups and organisations involved in the protection of native plants, animals and ecosystems in Taranaki. There are currently 36 members.

Our Goals are to:

- Raise the profile of biodiversity in our community
- Support the work already being done by individuals, community groups and organisations
- Engage with all groups with an interest in protecting the environment of Taranaki
- Encourage people to get involved
- Foster collaboration
- Develop new projects
- Raise funds to support this work

Benefits of getting involved

- You will become part of the largest team in our community working to protect biodiversity.
- You will be helping to safeguard the natural environment of Taranaki for the benefit of our children and grandchildren.
- You will experience increased enjoyment and appreciation of our natural world.
- You will experience improved health and wellbeing.
- There are opportunities to network and develop friendships and partnerships.
- There are opportunities to learn new skills and gain practical experience.

HOW YOU CAN HELP

- ✓ Join us as either a Member or become a Friend
- ✓ Become involved in a biodiversity project as a volunteer
- ✓ Talk to others to help raise awareness of Taranaki's biodiversity
