INTERNATIONAL VOLUNTEER HQ

Can you occupy 25+ adults helping at your school or ECE for a day?

The awesome staff from IVHQ Taranaki & Auckland are closing their business for the day to celebrate 18 years in business.

Originally set up by Taranaki's Dan Radcliffe, IVHQ has been celebrating its business anniversaries by offering Enviroschools a working bee for years.

Now it's your chance!!

Working bee date is Friday 25 July (Term 3, week 2)

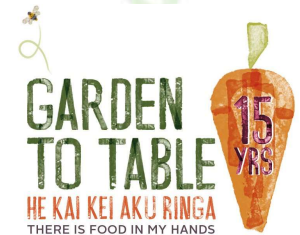

Apply now with a one-pager telling us why you deserve or need this and how it will add to your Enviroschools journey.

Applications in by 5pm

Other activities you may like to get involved in

Are you a Garden to Table school or interested in seeing it in action? Well Kaimata students are running an open day

Wednesday 28 May, 9.30am – 11.30am. RSVP to heather@gardentotable.org.nz

Got a great idea & need some $$$$ for your ag or hort related activities?

If you're based in the Stratford district then please reach out to Ostlers Gardens Trust.

Lauree is on the board & can confirm they are looking for more projects to support. <https://ostlersgardensct.org.nz/>

Sustainable Taranaki are running an Upcycling competition for all Taranaki schools.

More details here Entries close 1st August. Cool prizes to be won.

Sport Taranaki has an amazing initiative where people can donate good quality used sports gear for others to make use of.

Your friendly Enviroschools team members can also help with accessing a bin for donation or a bin full of gear to choose from. For more information, see their website for more on Replay

Our Educators can work with any school, kura or ECE. If you're interested in sustainability or environmental education that's free to you, then we'd love you to get in touch

Enviroschools Taranaki is proud to have the following regional partners
